EXTRACT FROM THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF EODID S.A.

[CORPORATE PURPOSE]

The purpose of the Company is:

1. To provide interested third parties with services of any kind relating to mediation, arbitration and, in general, any lawful dispute resolution procedure, particularly procedures conducted outside the courts or prior to court proceedings, whether such procedures currently exist in practice or may emerge in the future.

2. To promote, in general, the institutions of mediation and arbitration or other dispute resolution procedures, with a view to making them more widely known to the general public and to third parties who may be interested in making use of the aforementioned institutions for the resolution of their disputes.

3. To undertake initiatives and carry out activities aimed at fostering confidence in the aforementioned institutions and familiarizing professionals and, in general, prospective interested parties with them.

4. To organize or participate in events, lectures, conferences, seminars or other similar activities contributing to the promotion of the aforementioned institutions and dispute resolution procedures, including, by way of example, participation in events involving associations of judges, the National School of Judges, the Ministry of Justice and other bodies for the promotion of the institution of mediation in the capacity of a "mediation ambassador".

5. In particular, to establish a body of "mediation ambassadors", which shall act as a catalyst for the dissemination, visibility and promotion of the institution of mediation as a means of alternative dispute resolution, with a view to the faster and more effective resolution of private disputes and, more generally, the administration of justice, within the framework of the legal provisions in force from time to time.

6. To prepare, undertake and support legislative reform initiatives relating to the institution of mediation and/or arbitration and/or other institutions and procedures for the amicable out-of-court resolution of disputes.

7. To develop a specialized system of pre-established rules governing the provision of mediation and/or arbitration services and/or services relating to the amicable out-of-court resolution of disputes in general, as well as a system of rules constituting a code of conduct, which the Organization shall make available, on an optional basis, to interested third parties.

8. To develop and provide services relating to other hybrid methods of out-of-court dispute resolution or the facilitation of dispute resolution, or other similar methods, systems or frameworks of action, including, by way of example, the Med-Arb (Mediation–Arbitration) procedure as a hybrid method of out-of-court dispute resolution.

9. To organize, staff and operate an organized system for the provision of administrative and secretarial support services and organized premises in connection with the aforementioned purposes, and to provide administrative and secretarial support services of any kind, as well as to make operational, organized premises available for use.

10. To attract and recruit personnel and associates in any field, to provide for their continuing professional development or to support their training and specialization, and to provide educational, further training, continuing professional development and specialized training services.

11. To establish particularly stringent rules and criteria for the selection of persons cooperating with the Organization, which shall be continuously updated in accordance with constantly evolving circumstances.

12. To provide information technology design and development services enabling the electronic provision of all or some of the aforementioned services or facilitating technological advancement in the development of the aforementioned activities through modern methods.

13. To provide advice to third parties in relation to any of the aforementioned fields.

14. To publish printed or electronic books, printed commercial advertising material, commercial catalogues and similar publications.

15. To undertake research and development activities in relation to any of the aforementioned fields.

16. To develop, accumulate, advance and exploit, by any means, know-how and intellectual creations, as well as intellectual and industrial property, in relation to the aforementioned fields; to grant licenses for their use and exploitation and, in general, to disseminate them, in whole or in part; to assign or otherwise make them available; and to establish networks for their exploitation, in whole or in part, by any means, in Greece and/or abroad.

17. To provide any other service or undertake any other activity which facilitates, promotes or contributes in any manner to the lawful resolution of disputes through cooperation with distinguished academic, scientific and other associates from any field.

18. To provide any services ancillary, incidental, accompanying, supplementary or auxiliary to the aforementioned services, including services not expressly referred to above.

19. To provide all or some of the aforementioned services and to develop all or some of the aforementioned activities in any territory outside Greece.

20. To provide all or some of the aforementioned activities or services free of charge or at a reduced cost within the framework of the Company's corporate social responsibility initiatives.

For the achievement of its corporate purpose, the Company may:

(a) Participate in the capital of domestic or foreign natural or legal persons, of any corporate form, having the same or a similar purpose and/or activity.

(b) Cooperate, by any means, with any domestic or foreign natural or legal person pursuing one or more of the aforementioned purposes and/or activities.

(c) Represent, for profit, domestic or foreign natural or legal persons, of any corporate form, having the same or a similar purpose and/or activity.

(d) Enter into contracts or agreements of any kind with natural or legal persons governed by public or private law, companies, States and organizations, whether domestic or foreign.

(e) Establish or participate in franchise networks pursuant to contracts or agreements of any kind with domestic or foreign natural or legal persons governed by public or private law.

(f) Establish companies of any kind or participate in companies, joint ventures or undertakings of any form, whether domestic or foreign, having the same or a similar purpose and/or activity.

(g) Establish branches and representative offices in Greece or abroad.

(h) Participate in European programmes of any kind and in public- or private-sector tenders for the undertaking of projects falling within the Company's corporate purpose, and perform any lawful act for the implementation of such participation.

(i) Undertake any related commercial or other activity and perform any material act or legal transaction directly or indirectly connected with the Company's purposes or directly or indirectly aimed at fulfilling those purposes, and, in general, carry out any operation or act which, in the circumstances, may be wholly or partly related to the achievement of the aforementioned purposes.

For the achievement of the aforementioned purposes, the Company may also develop and commercialize patents, industrial and trade marks, licenses, production and processing methods, know-how and, in general, other intellectual, commercial and industrial property rights.